Other news:

● Work parties:

The March 16th work party was on a rainy day and had a light turnout, but we still got things done: Cleaned out the range shack, swept the floor. Put stuff in the new target shed and screwed the Alamo sign above the door. See picture at left: Mike Lowe putting up new, sturdier numbers on the target line.

● The March 17th fun shoot was cancelled because even rainier weather was predicted. Let's hope the weather is better for the May .22 shoot.

● Though Gary has gotten a couple of volunteers, who are much appreciated, we still need more shooting benches, with seats. To volunteer please call Gary Quandt at (210) 248-8182.

● Thanks to Tony and Audrea Saucedo for making the March 3rd lunch.

Other members: Please volunteer to prepare lunch at one of the first-Sunday shoots for the months of April, June, August 2024, and January 2025. This does not mean you give us the food, instead volunteers will be reimbursed for receipts. Please contact Entertainment Committee chair John Burke Jr. to volunteer: 210-391-1792.

● Note that the flyer for the May skirmish is page 5 of this newsletter.

Please note that 4-H has additional times in April, highlighted below.
